To Whom It May Concern:

In August 2011, the City of El Cajon purchased nine dispatch consoles for our newly built Public Safety Center. We reviewed several vendors, but ultimately selected Russ Bassett. The consoles are excellent. Aside from the durability, the consoles have adequate space for I.T technicians to work on the equipment on demand.

All of the work was completed according to the schedule and each of the employees was extremely professional. Our assigned Project Manager, Ava Rabago, was professional and very accommodating. She worked tirelessly to ensure our staff had what they needed in order to do their jobs. Ava's hard work and attention to detail assured everything was on time and remained within the budget.
